This journal is made possible because of the support funds provided by Chulalongkorn University for publication of academic work.

Pasaa appears twice a year, in March and October. Contributions should be submitted by January 1st for the March issue, and by July 1st for the October issue. Articles should be typed on single sides of quarto paper, and with double spacing. Preferably they should be in English, but if in Thai a short abstract in English is required. No payment will be made for any contribution, but each author will receive 3 copies of the journal in which his article appears. Further copies, as available, may be obtained if the author pays for postage. Pasaa will publish articles having practical or theoretical orientation in the following areas:

1. Teaching and Learning English as a Second/Foreign Language.
2. Language Planning and Policy Making.
3. Second/Foreign Language Measurement and Evaluation.
4. Language Acquisition with Implications for Teaching and Learning a Second/Foreign Language.
5. The Pragmatics of Language Learning.

Any contribution falling within the scope of the journal will be considered, and questions on problems on which teachers would like expert guidance will be welcomed. Copyright will remain with the Chulalongkorn University Language Institute.
