

UNIT 1 VIDEO WORKSHEET

Instructions: Add a clause after the subordinator to create complex sentences.

Examples:

- All day, Blanchette ran in the Alps until the sun set behind the hills.
- Blanchette was surprised when the moon appeared in the sky.

Time subordinators:

1. The lights went out before _____
2. The dog waited by the door when _____
3. After _____, she called her friend to plan a small celebration.
4. While _____, the train stopped suddenly, causing everyone to jolt forward.
5. When _____, my brother seemed excited smiling from ear to ear.

Reason subordinators:

1. The students were quiet because _____
2. As _____, they were exhausted, barely able to keep moving.
3. Since _____, the class ended early, and the students hurried to pack their bags.
4. She felt proud because _____
5. Seeing that _____, I decided not to go out and stay at home.

Name: _____ ID: _____ Score: ____ / 2